There are many other home health agencies that you may choose from. When choosing an agency, we recommend you use the below guidance taken from "A Consumer's Guide to Homemaker-Home Health Aides," a booklet published by the State of New Jersey Department of Law and Public Safety, Division of Consumer Affairs, New Jersey Board of Nursing.

The certified homemaker-home health aide must meet these requirements:

- Completion of a Homemaker-Home Health Aide course approved by the New Jersey Board of Nursing.
- Successful completion of a competency evaluation by the home care services agency.
- Hold a current and valid certification by the New Jersey Board of Nursing as a Homemaker-Home Health Aide. The certificate will have a State of New Jersey seal and date of expiration; certificates expire every two years. Should you have any questions concerning a CHHA's certification, you should call the New Jersey Board of Nursing at 973-504-6507.
- Completion of the Federal and State criminal history background checks.
- Employment by a home care services agency.
- Supervision by a licensed Registered Professional Nurse.
