The Valley Hospital Auxiliary— Celebrating 75 Years of Giving to The Valley Hospital

Years before The Valley Hospital was built, 36 women from local organizations met at the Red Cross building in Ridgewood to form a Women's Auxiliary for the future hospital. They elected officers and immediately began formulating plans and programs for what was to become "The Women's Auxiliary of the Valley Hospital." The date was January 21, 1944. By April, they had 450 charter members and decided they would help furnish and decorate the new hospital, make surgical dressings and help recruit nurses' aides.

It soon became clear that fundraising would become an integral part of the Auxiliary's efforts. The first Valley Ball was held in November 1946. Various events soon followed, such as bridge parties, tennis matches, carnivals and horse and pony shows. Eventually, the Auxiliary raised $148,000, enough to frame, furnish and equip an entire third floor for the new hospital.

The Valley Hospital opened on August 8, 1951. By then the Auxiliary had Branches in 14 towns, supporting the Hospital through volunteerism, fundraising and community relations. Today, the Auxiliary continues that mission with more than 800 members and 15 local Branches.

The Auxiliary greatly appreciates the contributions and participation of so many of Valley's friends and supporters.
